

Dr. Lipani:

Thank you so very much for taking the time and effort to write me and provide me with such helpful information. That was extremely thoughtful of you. The promptness of your response has also elicited a real sense of hope and direction for me. In addition to the fact that you have worldwide acknowledgement as a pundit scholar and surgeon, I can easily surmise that you are a true humanitarian. Again, I deeply appreciate your guidance and sincere concern.

Sincerely yours,
W.R.